MICHAEL "SQUIRREL MAN" SCHWARTZ

Michael Schwartz was born inside the Warsaw Ghetto, stuffed into a bottle of Slivovitz, re-corked, smuggled out through the sewers of Poland, and drained into the Atlantic Ocean. A generation later he washed up on the shores of Coney Island, was uncorked by a mermaid who gave the alcohol preserved newborn mouth to mouth resuscitation and a taste for seafood and raised him with her lover, the mechanical fat laughing lady, making their precious "message in a bottle" the first boy on his block with same-sex trans-species human-electronic adoptive parents and a love note from his doomed birth parents.
